

SPORT AND ENTERTAINMENT BUSINESS MINOR (A)

The Sport and Entertainment Business Major/Minor is housed within the Sport and Hospitality Business Department.

How does the Sport and Entertainment Business MINOR differ from the major?

1. Only 18 credits from the Sport and Hospitality Program are required for the minor.
(Click on the CURRICULUM tab for more information.)
2. Students minoring in Sport and Entertainment Business are NOT required to take SHB 4500 - Program Capstone.
3. Students minoring in Sport and Entertainment Business are NOT required to take SHB 3000 - SHB Internship.

The minor is a popular option for students in the Batterman School of Business that are majoring in accounting, finance, marketing and public relations, as it provides valuable insight into elements of the sport and entertainment industry that differ from more traditional career tracts.

The inter-related sports and entertainment industries show no signs of slowing down. The North American sports market alone will grow from $63.9 billion to $75.7 billion by 2020, according to PricewaterhouseCoopers. But that's nothing compared to the global market. In 2016, the size of the sports industry was a whopping $1.3 trillion worldwide! So needless to say, there's a demand for people with a degree in sport and entertainment business.

This specialized minor allows you to pursue a variety of careers by merging the skills developed in your major with the unique demands found in the athletic and entertainment industries. Our curriculum is current, engaging, and challenging – with courses and experiences designed under the guidance of a professional advisory board consisting of industry practitioners – to help you develop the fundamentals, skills, and character that will give you the best chance to thrive in a competitive industry.

Not only that, but you'll work with industry pros, networking with and learning from experts in professional and amateur sports and entertainment, along with business people who work within the innumerable sub-professions tied to these industries. But nothing beats hands-on experience. If you display consistent professional and personal growth, you could earn intensive field experience opportunities at major events like the Final Four and even the Super Bowl.
