

LAW AND POLITICS MINOR (M)

The Law and Politics minor introduces students to the study of politics, while also developing an appreciation for the legal framework within which politics operates. This minor is a good choice for those interested in public policy and/or considering a career in law. Courses are interactive and discussion based, bridging the theory of law and politics to how the concepts apply at the local, state, national, and international levels, from a Christian perspective. Students engage with professors to study and address key legal and political issues of the day.
